Earthy Pleasure

AUGUST MAN :Feb 07

The Jewel box has created the Earth and the Fire ring, putting these disparate elements together and merging them into contrasting materials. A cool facade of diamonds, set in white gold and hand-crafted onto warm-tone wood certainly presents an undeniably spectacular ring to demonstrate a renewal of your love for your partner - which hopefully will spur a little fiery passion. Priced at $1800.

Tipping the scales at more the ten carats, this emerald-cut rubelite ring from The Jewel Box is perched atop five 18k white gold bands set with diamonds, more of which can be found along the underside of the centerpiece.

Enamel Art

NTUC LIFESTYLE May 07

Pair elegant enamel with 18k gold as well as precious gems and you get the whimsical ring collection from The Jewel Box. Resin instead of ceramic enamel is used so that your sparklies can last longer without cracking. This mysterious looking aquamarine ring caught our eye - doesn't it look like the Eye of Sauron in Lord of the Rings? But we digress. $1,200 to $2,400, from The Jewel Box at 25-04 Shaw Centre.
