Ardor

A necklace with matching set of earrings in 18k white gold is an elaborate floral design radiant with round brilliant and rose cut diamonds, and adorned with lustrous south sea pearls. The pendant is detachable.

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE

STRING US ALONG

Specialists in bespoke jewellery, The Jewel Box's Ariel necklace (shown here) has strings of seed pearl secured with an 18k white and rose gold clasp studded with round brilliant-cut diamonds. Worn in its entirety, the necklace is a stunning piece of timeless elegance that will take you to the red carpet. But its detachable clasp also allows for a simpler look, with options to wear the pearls without the pendant, or just the two-piece pendant on the reversible Omega chain (with rose gold on one side and white gold on the other). With matching earrings available, the Ariel set will carry you through a line of glamorous soirees.
